1. Objective

The objective of the Referral Policy is to give MTX employees a chance to suggest qualified and reliable candidates for open positions within our company

2. Scope

MTX employees across all locations are encouraged to refer eligible candidates for employment at MTX. This Policy is MTX's way of encouraging employee participation in identifying outstanding people to join the company. MTX employees should personally know and attest to the abilities of the referred candidate, to the best of their knowledge. Mass uploads of speculative resumes shall not be accepted in the scope of this policy.

3. Purpose

MTX is an equal opportunity provider and does not discriminate on any grounds. MTX is committed to a policy and practice of employment and advancement solely based on the qualifications and merit of an individual. MTX promotes referrals to support the continued growth of the organization. This referral policy ("Policy") will help set the path for referral(s) and its related requirements.

4. Eligibility For Referral Bonus

- Temporarily employed employees, interns, and contractors

However, it would be at management's discretion to include/exclude certain employees at a specified level. Referral / Employment of Relatives

The term “relatives” refers to any person who has a:

- Related by blood
- Related by marriage
- Also includes people who live together in a domestic partnership
- Adoptive children

This includes parents, step-parents, grandparents, in-laws, spouses or domestic partners, children, step-children, adoptive children, grandchildren, siblings, uncles, aunts, nieces, and nephews.

To avoid any incidents or suspicions of favoritism or conflict of interest, the following guidelines have to be adhered to:

- MTX employees who are related must not be involved in a supervisory/reporting relationship with one another.

- MTX related employees cannot be transferred, promoted, or hired inside a reporting relationship with a relative.
- MTX employees cannot be part of a hiring committee when a relative is considered for the position.

If you find yourself in a reporting relationship with a relative referred by you, you are required to report the relationship to the HR department or to the hiring committee that is considering the application of the relative for employment. If you fail to do so, the company reserves the right to take appropriate disciplinary action as specified below.

The hiring supervisor and HR are responsible for ensuring policy compliance. Department directors are responsible for monitoring changes in employee reporting relations after initial hire to ensure compliance with this Policy. MTX employees are responsible for immediately reporting any changes to their supervisor.

Note: This does not apply to co-founders.

12. Employees Become Relative in Due Course of Time

If two MTX employees who are in a reporting relationship become relatives in the course of their employment, one of the two must be transferred. We will give them time to discuss and choose which of them will be transferred before management makes a final decision. Transfers will be discrimination-free. For example, the person being transferred must not always be of the same gender.

13. Disciplinary Consequences

If a previously unreported relative relationship is discovered between a Reporting Manager and a team member, one of them will be transferred. If incidents of favouritism or conflict of interest have occurred, both employees will be subjected to disciplinary actions that range from reprimand to termination for cause.

We ask all of our MTX employees to act professionally when working with a relative and seek counsel from their Reporting Manager or HR if there are any problems.

Note: No exception to this Policy will be made without written consent from the Head of People Office.
