

SIGNATORY AUTHORITY POLICY

MTX GROUP INC.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

1. Purpose	2
2. Objective	2
3. Scope	2
4. Definitions	2
5. Agreement Signing Authority	2
6. Delegation of Authority	3
7. Clarification of Delegation	3
8. Enforcement	3

1. Purpose

The purpose of the Signatory Authority Policy is to specify the signing authority for all legally binding agreements to be executed on behalf of MTX Group Inc. This Policy applies to all agreements to which MTX Group Inc. is a party or that obligate MTX Group Inc. in any manner. It does not apply to signatures or approvals required for processes internal to the company (e.g., time sheets, leave approvals, etc.).

2. Objective

The objectives of this Policy are to establish clear guidelines that only those individuals with appropriate approval and accountability sign agreements on behalf of MTX Group Inc. and that said agreements are reviewed appropriately. The guidelines enable adequate internal controls to ensure the assets of the Company and its entities are properly protected; and to ensure that risk management processes are in place to support effective and informed decision-making.

3. Scope

This Policy applies to the Employees of MTX Group Inc. and all of its subsidiaries..

4. Definitions

In this policy:

4.1 “Agreements” means all written documents that create a legally binding commitment, and includes, but is not limited to, Project Documents, confidentiality agreements, credit agreements and other financing and security agreements, revenue generating or expenditure contracts, memoranda of understanding, licenses, letters of agreement, letters of intent, purchase agreements, services contracts, or any other document which creates an obligation or which may be binding upon the Corporation or a subsidiary and “Agreement” means any one of the Agreements.

4.2 “Employees” includes all levels of management.

4.3 “Entities” means all companies, partnerships or entities which may be owned or controlled by MTX Group Inc. “Entity” means any one of the Entities.

4.4 “Internal Delegation of Authority Policy” means the “Delegation of Authority Policy” policy implemented by the Chief Executive Officer, in which signing authority is delegated from the Chief Executive Officer down to cascading levels of management in accordance with the parameters established in this Signing Authority Policy and Delegation to Management.

5. Agreement Signing Authority

Authorized Signature: All Agreements must be signed by the Chief Executive Officer unless otherwise stated in an Authorized Signatory Authority Memo.

6. Delegation of Authority

Only a person with current signatory authority to authorize others is able to designate signatory authority. The attached Delegation of Authority memo should be given to the employee designee, and a copy kept in the employee's personnel file. Changes in the authority must be documented by similar memos and kept in the file. It is the responsibility of the authorizing party to make sure that the designee has been trained in agreement procedures and to check agreements from time to time to ensure that Signing Authority policy is being followed.

7. Clarification of Delegation

An employee has signing authority for an Agreement only if provided with such authority according to the provisions of this policy. In instances where an employee requires clarification about signing authority, he/she should seek guidance from the Chief Executive Officer and/or the company's General Counsel. Any agreement executed by an employee without authority delegated in writing and approved by the CEO is void. Should the Company be held responsible on the theory of apparent authority, the employee who executed the document in question shall be liable for all damages to the Company resulting therefrom.

8. Enforcement

Failure to follow this policy or any other approved MTX Group Inc. policy shall result in disciplinary action, including termination of employment.

Disclaimer- This policy is subject to amendment without prior notice and MTX management solely reserves the right to amend this policy. Additionally, this policy is intended to be in compliance with the laws of the State in which the individual employee resides. Any conflict between the law of the state in which the employee resides and this policy shall be decided by the law of the state in which the employee resides.

Important Notice:

This document and any attachments submitted with it are confidential and intended solely for the use of the individual or entity to which it is addressed. If you are not the intended recipient, you are hereby notified that any use, dissemination, forwarding, printing, copying or other use of this document, any attached documents, and the information these documents contain, is strictly prohibited. If you have received this by mistake, please advise the sender immediately and destroy/invalidate the document.

©Copyright: MTX. All Rights Reserved. Referred products/ services logos/names may be registered trademarks of belonging companies.